Crooked Lottery. The Denver Lottery Company, which recently opened headquarters in Kansas City, Kansas, has vacated its office. The Kansas City Journal says its officers have fled from town after having received $30,000 from tickets leaving all prizes unpaid. The company was driven out of Denver a month ago and opened in Kansas City.

A great many Nevada people have been patronizing this swindling Denver concern.

It is now a settled fact that as Nevada will never have a home lottery it ought to join in the war now being waged against all other lotteries.

When lotteries cease to exist in the United States there will be no need of any here. If outside lotteries continue the case becomes one of simple self protection.

A WOMAN'S IDEA.

She Thinks that the Widow was not a Blackmailer.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—I notice by your paper the woman who you say was blackmailing married men, has been compelled to leave town to avoid a Grand Jury investigation.

Now that the newspaper publicity has caused her to leave this city, what is to be done with the married men who found her society so pleasant while she was here?

I think they ought to follow her and if public opinion is to be believed, I am not so certain but that some of them at least are getting a little to. Now I have my doubts about the blackmailing story. No one gets compromised by such people who does not want to be, and any married man who leaves his family and the wife he has sworn to love and cherish, to seek the company of such traveling frauds is as much unfit to live in the town as she is. Of course public opinion is all against the woman as if she was the only wrong doer, but if some of her married patrons could be made to have a realizing sense of how people in the community regard them they would be as anxious to leave town as she was.

A MARRIED WOMAN.

Compromised by Cupid.

The Few man was the recipient of a pleasant call Thursday morning from Mrs. Josephine Walcott, of San Francisco, the plaintiff in the late Bonanza suits. She is a bright little lady of pleasing address with a keen business eye. The lady left the impression on us that all difficulties between her and Mr. Watson were amicably adjusted. We were in the act of inquiring on what line the much-desired compromise was effected; but a merry twinkle in the lady's eye shut off what might have been a rude act on our part—peering into secrets not yet ripe for public gaze. Mrs. Walcott departed by Thursday's stage for the West.—White Pine News.

It is generally supposed out this way, that Cupid has been arbitrator between the litigants and that the plaintiff and defendant will throw the case out of court by linking their fortunes matrimonially.

They probably find it necessary to make this arrangement to save their property from the lawyers.

Two Valuable Inventions.

There is nothing that carriage workers have to contend with so much as the thill couplings of a buggy and the fifth wheel.

When you uncouple the thills it requires the two monkey wrenches several skinned fingers and no end of profanity, and the fifth wheel wears quickly, catches sand rattles incessantly.

J. W. Leete of this city has invented a thill coupling that never rattles and can be detached in a few seconds. The fifth wheel is really something that entirely does away with a fifth wheel, and is a movable connection between the axle and the front of the buggy that is so simple that one wonders why it was not invented before.

Dr. Herrick has purchased a half interest in the invention and they have been offered $10,000 for a third interest.

Several people of this city have adopted the new contrivances and all who have used them speak in the highest terms of them.

The set only comes at $5 00 and can be placed on any buggy.

The ladies of St. Peter's Guild will give one of the old time socials on Friday evening the 29th at the Armory Hall. Refreshments, dance and good music will be the programme.

John Harris, arrested a few days since by Sheriff Ullrick for selling liquor to Indians, has been bound over by Justice Hawthorne to appear before the Grand Jury.

While the weather is in such a lovely state every lady needs a bonnet to match. Mrs. Knowl's has just those kind of bonnets.

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION.

Five Bodies Found and More in the Wreck.

The Cascade calamity is one of the most appalling disasters on the C. P. Five bodies have already been found and it is expected that as many more will be developed. Nineteen cars were piled up in one mangled mass and conductor, engineer, fireman and train hands were crushed in the debris.

When the cars came together at the station, two operators were killed and a third thrown from his bed into the ravine. He escaped with a few scratches. The whole accident was caused by a defective air-brake and the failure on the part of the trainmen to set the hand-brakes.

Mr. T. R. Hofer and Mr. Barney McClure and families have returned from Woodfords.

Washoe's Commissioners are considering the advisability of building a bridge across the Truckee river at Essex.

The APPEAL has just finished printing 10,000 sheets of wrapping paper for Geo. Hawkins the cigar dealer. Most of the business men in Carson get their wrapping paper printed in San Francisco and Chicago not deeming that it can be done here, as a result Hawkins has the most attractive supply of paper in Carson.

The widow who made such a commotion in various families in this city has gone to Salt Lake. Probably to try and get admitted to the Mormon club.
